

Contents

To Our Readers	13
-----------------------------	----

The Best of Times and the Worst of Times	19
---	----

Note: Names below that are marked with an asterisk () are pseudonyms, as requested for privacy.*

The Steadfast:

Staying the course to find the same work elsewhere	29
---	----

Warren Szkolnicki – Networking and relocating	31
---	----

Gord Miller – The long-distance commute	34
---	----

The Direction Changers 1:

Building on their strengths	39
--	----

Ann Andersen*—Getting your foot in the door in a new sector	41
---	----

Dan Kelly—From high tech to marketing and sales	46
---	----

David Lang*—From doing to teaching	52
--	----

Robert Miner—Back to school at 50	55
---	----

The Direction Changers 2:

Moving beyond technology	59
---------------------------------------	----

Tom Hill—From high-tech manager to selling Mercedes	61
---	----

Anita Flegg—Becoming an author and speaker	65
--	----

Elizabeth Corpus*—Retraining: From quality control to medical reception	70
---	----

The Entrepreneurs:

Starting their own business	75
--	----

Amjid Zareef—Starting out with a retail franchise	77
---	----

Andrew Johnston—Turning what you love to do into a business	82
---	----

Laurie Martin—From administration to menu design	85
--	----

Keith Percival—From engineering to winemaking	88
---	----

The Optimists:

Things will work out for the best	95
Hélène Joncas—Chasing venture capital	97
Pat Orchard—Helping start-ups get going	100
Ingrid Kihl—Leveraging people skills	104
Carrie Hall*—Loving the layoff	108

The Business People:

Non-tech workers in tech	113
Saba Sharifi—Working the network	115
Rosemary Wrong—Layoffs happen; deal with it!	119
Virginia Baker*—The job is not perfect yet	123

The Stars:

Standouts that were in demand	129
Mark Taber—Driven for success	131
Kirsten Watson—Innovative and proactive	134

The Believers:

Leveraging the power of faith and trust	139
Steve Hudson—Everything happens for a reason; if you want a job, change yourself	141
André Pion—Keep searching; keep trusting	145

The Couples:

When all the family income disappears	151
Don and Nancy Masson*—Attitude is everything	153
Frances King and Tony Hoe—Doing whatever it takes	157
Sylvia Parker and Cliff Lapenskie— Making a difference through multi-level marketing	163
Anita and Kevin Caputo—Riding the roller coaster to success	168

Stages of Emotions:Emotional swings are normal178Getting Through the Challenge of Unemployment 183

Now What? 184

The Low Points 185

Job Hunting Challenges 188

The Skills Issue 189

What Kept Them Going? 190

Tips and Strategies for Bouncing to Success 194

Take Care of Yourself 194

Know Yourself 195

Go for Your Passion—and Do It Passionately 196

Be Clear 197

Think Innovatively 197

Build on Your Strengths 198

Make a Plan and Act on It 200

Upgrade Your Skills and Your Tools 201

Use Career Transition Services 202

Employ an Employer's Lens 203

Avoid the Traps 207

Network! Network! Network! 208

Volunteer 212

Change Direction 212

Key Attitudes of Learning to Bounce 213

Be Aware 217

Conclusion 220What to Do While You Are Employed:*Suggestions from a high-tech veteran 222About Lee Wallace and Anita Caputo 223